

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOW, LEADERSHIP FOR THE ECOZOIC, DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY, MCGILL UNIVERSITY

We seek a postdoctoral fellow to join the Anthropology for the Ecozoic (A4E) node of the inter-university Leadership for the Ecozoic (L4E) initiative. The ideal candidate is an exceptional early-career scholar with a PhD in anthropology or a related field who will conduct original, conceptually and ethnographically informed projects with the potential to significantly transform fields of inquiry and modes of practice enabling a mutually enhancing human-Earth relationship. The postdoctoral fellow will work closely with L4E faculty in the Department of Anthropology at McGill University, which includes the Territories of Life initiatives of the Centre for Indigenous Conservation and Development Alternatives and the Critical Media Lab. We expect the Postdoctoral fellow to develop collaborations with McGill and UVM scholars and students as well as with L4E's wide network of external colleagues; and to participate in L4E activities such as student-led courses, retreats, meetings, and workshops. We offer two years of an annual salary of 45,000 CAD plus benefits and access to up to 5,000 CAD for research activities. Expected start date is fall 2022.

Eligibility and Application:

Applicants should familiarize themselves with Anthropology for the Ecozoic the L4E Strategic Plan and, more broadly, the L4E website. Candidates must have completed a PhD within 5 years of the start date. Competitive candidates will have a strong research record, a commitment to interdisciplinary work, a keen interest in connecting research to action, and high potential to become a global leader in Ecozoic modes of thought and action. Applications will be evaluated on academic merit, potential for real world and academic impact, fit with L4E research themes. Women and people from diverse racial, ethnic, cultural, and socioeconomic backgrounds are encouraged to apply. Send a cover letter, CV, research proposal and their completed Recruitment Questionnaire to Dina Spigelski (dina.spigelski@mcgill.ca) by January 17, 2022.

McGill University hires on the basis of merit and is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community. We welcome applications from racialized persons/visible minorities, women, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, and persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, as well as from all qualified candidates with the skills and knowledge to productively engage with diverse communities. McGill implements an employment equity program and encourages members of designated groups to self-identify. Persons with disabilities who anticipate needing accommodations for any part of the application process may contact, in confidence, accessibilityrequest.hr@mcgill.ca.

*L'Université McGill recrute sur la base du mérite et s'est fermement engagée à promouvoir et instaurer l'équité et la diversité au sein de sa communauté.
